

Persuasive Writing

Learning at Home

Day 1 – Choose an animal that you either like or dislike. Tell us more about your opinions on this animal.

Don`t forget to plan your writing. You can use a blank piece of paper, or the planning sheet attached.

Day 2 – Work on your Topic sentence and include the first reason to support your opinion. d Don't forget to use Capital sentences and full stops.

Day 3 − Include two other reasons to support your opinion and write your concluding sentence.

d Don`t forget to add detail to your reasons.

Day 4 – Look to add some detail. Can you add: feelings, sensations, facts & experts or stories & details to support your argument?

details to 'persuasive' language iny our writing.

Day 5 − Revise and edit your work. ∮ Don`t forget to make sure that your writing is nice and neat so the reader can easily read it.

(1)	I can revise my writing!
	Add more information to my writing.
	Delete words that doesn't make sense or sound right.
	Add strong verbs to my writing.
	Add adjectives to my writing.
	Add striking words to my writing.
	© The Clinical Practitioners 2020

2 I can edit my writing! 2
Re-read over my writing.
Start my sentences with a capital letter.
End my sentences with a full stop.
Check and correct my spelling.
Put finger spaces between my writing. © The Clinical Practitioners 2020

Developing Ideas with Details & Examples "What else can I say about that?"

Feelings

Interested (Scared

Confused Shocked

How do I feel? How do other people feel? What caused these feelings?

Sensations

What do I see or notice? What does it look like?

What do I hear? What does it sound like?

What does it taste like?

What does it smell like?

Facts & A

Experts

What do I know about this? What can I find out? What do the experts say? Can I add real, true data?

What evidence proves my point?

Stories & Wh- Details

Is there a time.... story to tell?

Do I have any experiences with this?

Who? When? Why? What? Where? How?

Can I add wh-details?

©2017 Debra Farrell: Brilliant Abilities

